

Dr. Paul Luimes:

Dr. Paul Luimes is a College Research Professor at the University of Guelph Ridgetown Campus. Currently, he has also taken on the role of Coordinator of the Agriculture Diploma program. He teaches and does research in the Livestock section. His primary area of research interest is sheep nutrition but also conducts trials in dairy and swine nutrition. His teaching includes advanced production courses (Small Ruminant Production, Animal Health and Ruminant Nutrition).

Besides doing talks around Ontario, he has been to the Provinces of British Columbia, Alberta, Manitoba, and Quebec and the country of Colombia.

Dr. Luimes has been married to his wife, Kathryn, for 26 years and they have 5 children, and one son-in-law. He and Kathryn have a small flock of around 25 Rideau Arcott/Dorset cross ewes.